

CPA AWARDS PRIX ACP

CPA Propane Training Institute, Training Award

The CPA Propane Training Institute, Training Award, celebrates engaging and inspiring PTI trainers, who are best in their class and achieve a level of excellence in the classroom.

It is given for the hard work, dedication and commitment that individuals provide. The award has the objective of encouraging individuals to contribute to the promotion and understanding of the propane industry through training.

This award is chosen by the Governance and Board Development Committee, who will review each nomination along with sufficient documentation and evidence from the nominator.

Eligible Candidates (up to 4 awards may be presented)

Eligible Candidates may (be):

- A current PTI registered trainer in good standing.
- Not have previously received the award.

Nomination Process

Nomination packages will be accepted no later than March 7th and submitted to the Association.

Email : info@propane.ca

Once all nominations are received by the CPA, they will be given to the Governance and Board Development Committee for review, discussion and ratification.

The successful recipients will be notified and additional information will be gathered for the announcement. The award recipient will be featured in CPA's communications, which can include Energized, newsletters and the website.

Submit a Nomination for CPA Propane Training Institute, Training Award

Nominators are asked to fill in the information below or submit a single PDF via email to info@propane.ca by March 7.

Name of Nominee: _____

Present Company: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

1. Please provide a summary and examples of the contributions that the nominee has made to the advancement of training in the classroom or in the field.

2. Please provide an example of the nominee's contribution to support a culture of safety.

3. Please provide any other information supporting your nomination.

Nominator: _____

Company: _____

Email: _____

Date of application : _____